FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL BUSINESS OWNER LAUNCHES NEW STAGING & REDESIGN ILLINOIS CERTIFIED SCHOOL

GraceAnn Simoni, owner of Yours Redesigned, a Redesign & Staging company located in Naperville, IL, has launched a new Training School, the Midwest Staging Redesign Institute. The Institute provides 5 day redesign training and 3 day Staging training courses for the public. Through classroom and hands on training in actual houses, the MSIR certifies graduates as a Qualified Redesign Specialist and Qualified Staging Professional. In addition, in depth business training is included so Graduates can launch their own businesses as soon as possible.

The new website, www.midweststagingredesigninstitute.com also offers the public a Graduate Directory, a listing of all graduates who have been certified by the MSRI, enabling the homeowner to find a qualified, trained, redesign or stager for their home.

In August 2007, the Midwest Staging Redesign Institute received official certification from the State of Illinois Board of Education as a Vocational School.

GraceAnn Simoni, member and approved instructor of I.R.I.S, is a professional interior redesigner and home stager in the Western Suburbs, specializing in one day room makeover using your existing furniture as seen on HGTV.
